

AFTERMATH

VIOLENCE AND WELLBEING IN THE
CONTEXT OF THE STUDENT MOVEMENT

#Exhibition

Venue: Molly Blackburn Hall, UCT, Tuesday, 3 May 2022 – Thursday, 5 May 2022, 10 am – 4 pm

Photovoice exhibition by students from the University of the Western Cape, University of the Free State, University of Venda, University of Fort Hare, and Durban University of Technology

Opening Function: “The Aftermath Exhibition”: Molly Blackburn Hall, UCT, 3 May 2022, 1 pm – 2 pm

With speakers from the UCT Department of Student Affairs, UCT Students’ Representative Council, Rhodes Must Fall, Human Sciences Research Council, University of Venda, and University of the Free State.

Panel Discussion: “Restoring Wellbeing after Protests: Lessons from #FeesMustFall”, Richard Luyt room, 4 May, 1 pm – 2.30 pm

Chair: Dr Keamogetse Morwe, Pura Mgolombane, Siya Platjie, Asanda Lobelo, Tshepang Mahlatsi, Thierry M Luescher.

Closing Function: Molly Blackburn Hall, UCT, Thursday, 5 May 2022, 1 pm – 2 pm

*For wellness support contact UCT 021 650 1020
For mental health emergencies phone 0800 24 25 26*

Trigger
Warning

Some images, captions, and videos in this presentation and related conversations can be provocative and include references to violence.