

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF CAPE TOWN (UCT) AND RHODES MUST FALL (RMF) MOVEMENT

Following mediation, and in recognition of broader imperatives for change at UCT that prompted RMF to engage in sustained protest action, UCT Management and RMF concluded the following:

- UCT Management will permanently withdraw disciplinary charges relating to continued occupation of Avenue House beyond 18 May 2015.
- RMF agrees to identify representatives in order to be able engage management directly in relation to protest that is possibly disruptive to the normal functioning of the university. RMF will engage with UCT Management prior to such action, ideally face-to-face.
- In the event that no agreement is reached during the engagement, and disruptive actions arise directly from any protest, RMF recognises that UCT Management will take action which may include disciplinary measures in line with the university student and/or staff codes of conduct. In taking such any such action, UCT Management bears responsibility to apply the rules in accordance with UCT’s values and in the pursuit of justice.
