UCT events and interview opportunities

- Seminar: International Women’s Network and the White Rose Consortium
 – In October 2015, the International Women’s Network UCT was officially launched in Sheffield with partnerships between Universities of Sheffield, Cape Town, Tongji (China) and Western Australia. The aim of this network is to bring together knowledge and expertise in supporting the career development of women researchers, teachers and support staff working in higher education. Professor Caitlin Buck, Ms. Claire Pickerdon and Professor Julie Gray of the International Women’s Network, Women@TUos, University of Sheffield join UCT’s Health Sciences Faculty in delivering this seminar.
- Seminar: Lessons from Building PSG with Jannie Mouton – Johannes (Jannie) Mouton, Founder and Chairman of PSG Group Ltd, will be speaking as part of the GSB Connect and Advertising and Media Association of South Africa (AMASA) Speaker Series. Mouton is also the Author & Co-Author of Gee my geleentheid, Die pad wat ons geloop het, Toe "fire" hulle my and Celebrating 20 years (PSG).
- Seminar: Meet the Leaders Series with Mmusi Maimane – Federal Leader of South Africa's official opposition, the Democratic Alliance (DA), Mmusi Maimane presents a talk on "The politics of protecting and rebuilding a democracy under threat". This seminar forms part of the GSB Connect "Meet the Leaders" series.
