

25 May 2020

Free online training on ethical reporting on violence against children

Focus on the hidden experiences of child sexual violence during COVID-19

The Children's Institute at the University of Cape Town in conjunction with Media Monitoring Africa will host a free online training on Reporting on Violence Against Children from 27-28 May 2020.

This three-day lunchtime seminar series, which will take place daily between 12:00 and 13:30, is loaded with valuable information on editorial and ethical guidelines, the law and has a special focus on the hidden experiences of child sexual violence during COVID-19.

Improve your reporting on sexual violence against children

Topics to be covered include:

- Insights into the nature and extent of sexual violence against children,
- How to ensure children's voices are represented ethically and safely, and
- Changes in risk and protective factors due to COVID19.

Download flyer.

Ends

Issued by the Communication and Marketing Department

Thami Nkwanyane

Media Liaison and Monitoring Officer
Communication and Marketing Department
University of Cape Town
Rondebosch
Tel: (021) 650 5672
Cell: (072) 563 9500
thami.nkwanyane@uct.ac.za
Website: www.uct.ac.za