UCT students to receive 100% fee rebate on dropped courses

The University of Cape Town Council has decided that students who drop courses between now and Friday, 5 June 2020, will receive a 100% fee rebate.

UCT Deputy Vice-Chancellor: Teaching and Learning, Associate Professor Lis Lange, said: "This means that if students are thinking about dropping a course to ensure they have a manageable workload (after consultation with their course convenors) they can make that decision without having to take into account the financial constraints about that decision."
