A women-led UCT: In conversation with senior women executives

26 October 2020 | 18:00 – 19:30 | Microsoft Teams | Join online

Join the discussion of 'A Women-led UCT', a series profiling executive leadership at the University of Cape Town (UCT). Connect with UCT Deans of Faculties, Associate Professors Shose Kessi (Humanities) and Linda Ronnie (Commerce), Professor Alison Lewis (Engineering and the Built Environment) and Dr Catherine Duggan (Director of UCT's Graduate School of Business) as they reflect on their leadership journey, their experiences of being senior women executives along with their vision for a UCT of the future.

The virtual discussion will be moderated by Professor Puleng Lenka-Bula, Vice-Rector: Institutional Change, Student Affairs and Engaged Scholarship at the University of the Free State.
