The University of Cape Town (UCT) executive will host UNESCO Regional Director Professor Hurbert Gijzen on Tuesday, 11 May 2021.

Professor Gijzen, who is on a mission to Cape Town this week, will visit UCT following the fire that devastated the university in April. He will be accompanied by the Chairperson of the South African National Commission for UNESCO, Professor Ihron Rensburg.

The UNESCO delegation will conduct a site visit to UCT, meet with the UCT leadership and visit the buildings affected by the fire.

Both the UCT Vice-Chancellor Professor Mamokgethi Phakeng and Professor Gijzen will be available for media interviews.

To confirm your attendance, please email elijah.moholola@uct.ac.za or send a text (SMS or WhatsApp) to 083 981 7770.
