UCT Chancellor Dr Moloi-Motsepe honours women in heartfelt tribute

University of Cape Town (UCT) Chancellor Dr Precious Moloi-Motsepe has, in celebration of Women's Month, paid tribute to and commended women for their remarkable achievements – recognising that the journey to gender equality is often a long and onerous one, and one that has some way to go still in South Africa.

"We pay tribute to all the women who have come before us and paved the way for all of us as women to be where we are today. Women continue to change their own narrative in terms of inclusion and gender equality. I invite and encourage men to collaborate and be partners in promoting gender parity and women's empowerment," said Moloi-Motsepe.

Moloi-Motsepe further highlighted the phenomenal contributions made by various women within the university community in fields such as research, teaching and learning, transformation, leadership, social responsiveness, innovation, community engagement and many others.

Her call to action encourages everyone to join in fixing our society and ensuring dignity and inclusivity for all.
