Invite: Conference on Liver Disease in Africa

29 September – 1 October 2022 | Doubletree by Hilton Cape Town Upper Eastside hotel

The Conference on Liver Disease in Africa (COLDA) 2022 is aimed at empowering healthcare professionals (HCPs) to diagnose, prevent, treat, and achieve a cure for liver diseases for the benefit of patients in Africa.

This year the conference is being co-hosted by the University of Cape Town (UCT) with Professor Wendy Spearman, head of the UCT hepatology division, the local chair of the conference.

An international community of experts will exchange knowledge on the latest developments and achievements in the management of viral hepatitis and liver disease with a special focus on the African context.

Topics to be covered include: hepatitis elimination, the challenges of hepatobiliary surgeries in sub-Saharan Africa and, the management of end stage liver disease - real life challenges among others.

Visit the website for more information and the full program.

Media are invited to attend all sessions. All media representatives can apply for a complimentary registration – please contact Rikke Rode with your credentials to obtain this.
