

Prof Salim S. Abdool Karim

Prof Lawrence Aber

Dr Priscilla Idele

Prof Theresa Betancourt

Prof Lucie Cluver

Dr Juliette Unwin

Prof Vikram Patel

Prof Mark Tomlinson

Prof Kevin Marsh

Prof Lorraine Sherr

Dr Chris Desmond

THE UKRI GCRF ACCELERATING ACHIEVEMENT FOR AFRICA'S ADOLESCENTS HUB

Making adolescent-inclusion the heart of the COVID-19 response

4 February 2021 | 1pm-3:30pm (GMT+1) | 3pm-5:30pm (SAST) | 8am-10.30am (GMT-5)

WEBINAR PROGRAMME

RSVP NOW

Chairs	Professor Lorraine Sherr, University College London and Dr Chris Desmond, University of KwaZulu-Natal
13.00-13.15	Professor Salim S. Abdool Karim CAPRISA, SA; Columbia University, University of KwaZulu-Natal; Cornell University	COVID-19: The good, the bad, and the complicated
13.15-13.30	Professor Lawrence Aber New York University	Education in conflicts and protracted crises: The value of an integrated conceptual framework
13.30-13.45	Dr Priscilla Idele Deputy Director of UNICEF office of Research Innocenti	Averting a lost generation of adolescents in the COVID era
13.45-14.00	Professor Theresa Betancourt Boston College	Building back better after crises? What have we learned about addressing the mental health of adolescents in war-affected settings
14.00-14.15	Professor Lucie Cluver University of Oxford & University of Cape Town	Assimilate, innovate, accelerate: Solutions for Africa's adolescents in COVID-19
14.15-14.30	Dr Juliette Unwin and Professor Lorraine Sherr Imperial College and University College London; Hillis S; Chen Y; Cluver L; Goldman P Flaxman S; Donnelly C et al.	Under the radar: Orphanhood and care disruption in COVID-19
14.30-14.45	Professor Vikram Patel Harvard University	Global mental health for adolescents in the light of the COVID-19 pandemic
14.45-15.00	Professor Mark Tomlinson Stellenbosch University & Queens University	Mind matters: Adolescent mental health and well-being in the time of COVID-19
15.00-15.15	Professor Kevin Marsh African Academy of Sciences & University of Oxford	COVID-19: Evolution of the pandemic in Africa
15.15-15.30	Discussion

